Committee Members: Jodi Lindsay, Julie Wilson, Dona Rutherford, Lillyanna Martinez, Ayla Roberts, Annette Marable

PURPOSE:

The purpose of the Southern New Mexico Fair and Rodeo Royalty Pageant is to select young ladies as official representatives of the Southern New Mexico State Fair and Rodeo (SNMSF&R). The Fair and Rodeo Queens, along with their courts, will serve as ambassadors of the Southern New Mexico State Fair and Rodeo to the public, exhibiting excellent sportsmanship, high moral, and ethical standards. They should be able to speak intelligently, with authority, and with knowledge of the Southern New Mexico State Fair and Rodeo and Southern New Mexico.

REQUIREMENTS:

- A. Contestants must be natural born females who have been a resident of Dona Ana, Luna, Otero, Sierra, Socorro, Bernalillo, Hidalgo, Valencia, Grant, Catron, or El Paso Counties for one year prior to the contest. Contestants must have never been pregnant or married.
- B. A contestant may not be holding another title from any other organization and compete in the SNMSF&R Royalty Pageant.
- C. Previous title holders of the Southern New Mexico State Fair and Rodeo may hold the same title twice, as long as, there is one year in between the titles; and that they left the previous title in good standing. To be in good standing, the title holder must uphold her agreement with the Royalty Committee and may not have had any disciplinary action which resulted in removal of her title.
- D. A contestant may not have had any disciplinary action from a committee, event, title, or office of the Southern New Mexico State Fair & Rodeo which resulted in her removal.
- E. Each contestant shall enter the category which they are the appropriate age for as of July 1 of the competition year. A copy of her birth certificate must be submitted with her application. Qualifying ages for the Rodeo Court are: Rodeo Queen- ages 17- 24; Rodeo Princess- ages 13-16; Rodeo Jr. Princess- ages 9-12. Qualifying ages for the Fair Court are: Fair Queen- ages 16-24; Fair Princess- ages 13-15; Fair Junior Princess- ages 9-12; and PeeWee Princess- ages 5-8.

ENTRY:

- A. The entry fee for each contestant is $200.00, which may be obtained through sponsorship advertisements for the commemorative royalty pageant booklet. The advertisement format and information for your sponsors are listed on the website. Entry is due by May 31, 2025 at the Information Session; however, late entries will be accepted no later than June 28, 2025 with a late fee of an additional $50.

- B. Contestants are required to sell 100 raffle tickets.
- C. Contestants must provide an item to go into the contestant duffle bags (i.e., lip gloss, nail polish, cups, etc.) Contestants will receive an e-mail after registration (no later than June 30, 2025) with the number of contestants for the bag item.
- D. Each contestant must provide one silent auction item for the Coronation Luncheon. This is required and will be due no later than three weeks before the pageant date each year.
- E. If a contestant fails to meet the above-mentioned items, they will not be allowed to compete in the upcoming pageant.
- F. There is a Top Hand award for the contestant that raises the most money in sponsorships and raffle tickets combined.

Tie-Breaking Procedures:

- A. If the total score results in a tie, the Rodeo contestant with the highest horsemanship score will be declared the winner; and the Fair contestant with the highest demonstration score will be declared the winner.
- B. If a tie still results in the respected categories, the contestant with the highest test score will be declared the winner.
- C. If after the test result is considered and there is still a tie, the contestant with the highest photogenic score will be declared the winner.

- D. If after all tiebreakers have been exhausted and scores still result in a tie, the committee will consult with the Judges for the final decision.

Interference:

- A. At no time during the contest will parents or others associated with the contestant be allowed to interfere with the judges or contest officials. (NOTE: A contestant may provide the judges with samples (i.e., baked goods) immediately following their fair demonstration.)
- B. The SNMSF&R Royalty Pageant welcomes and encourages immediate family members, relatives, and friends to attend all the events that are open to the public as designated in the schedule. Your support and assistance during the contest are especially important to your young lady, as she will need and appreciate encouragement and possible help during the competition.
- C. Please note that during the actual competition, each contestant is allowed one female companion to assist her backstage. (If the contestant is under the care of her father or male guardian, please let us know so we can make the proper arrangements).
- D. We strive to make this contest a positive experience that the contestant will cherish and remember, and an opportunity to make lifelong friends. We would like to remind you that all who are involved with the pageant: the Royalty Superintendent, Committee Members, and Fair Board members are all volunteers who donate many hours without monetary compensation to make this contest an honest and enjoyable one. They do this willingly because of their passion for providing this competition and their love for the young women who compete.

Coronation:

The Coronation Luncheon will follow the Sunday portion of the competition. During this time the winners of each category will be announced and the new royalty will be crowned. Immediately following the end of the luncheon, the new courts along with their parents and/or guardians will meet with the Royalty Committee to go over their duties and expectations for the upcoming year. This meeting is mandatory. All newly crowned titleholders and their parent/guardian will be required to sign the SNMSF&R Royalty Titleholder Contract.
